Quinton Utley's Tooth-Ache Drops.

FOR THE CURE OF THE TOOTHACHE

One of the Greatest Discoveries of the 19th Century!

FROM the numerous applications I have had for the above preparation, for the last few months, the uniform success which has attended its use, its salutary effects, its power to give immediate relief in the severest cases of Toothache, I have been induced to offer it to those who may be afflicted; with the utmost confidence in its virtue, and the full belief that it will subdue and give entire relief to the severest toothache without the slightest injury to the tooth. I have got (and can get,) numerous testimonials of its efficacy—some from distinguished gentlemen, and all from as reliable persons as are in the State, a publication of which I deem unnecessary at this time, as one of these Drops when tried in an aching tooth will be worth more to the manufacturer and the patient, than all the certificates from great men that could be procured.

The preparation is known only to myself. Every phial is carefully put up by my own hands in the City of Raleigh and labelled with directions for use, and may be found at IRA BECKWITH'S Store, on Fayetteville St. a few doors North of the Yarbrough House, and opposite Lawrence's Hotel, where it will be constantly kept for sale either by the wholesale or retail. Also for sale by the retail at Jone's Drug Store, Sycamore street, Petersburg, Va., and at Andrew Bett's Store, Wake County, N C. Retail price 50 cts. per Bottle—liberal deduction made when taken by the quantity.

To all who may have the toothache—try it, and then it will need no puffing.

All orders from a distance promptly attended to by Mr. Beckwith or myself.

QUINTON UTLEY.

Also, the propriety of laying an ad valorem tax on everyt slecies of personal property not already taxed, excep spaves, which are now exempted by the Constitution.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

TUESDAY, November 16, 1852.

On motion of Mr. Cherry the bill to appoint a superintendant of common Schools was taken up and made the order of the day for to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

A message was received from the Senate informing the House that it had rejected the bill to extend the right of appeal in certain cases.

Also that it had adopted a resolution proposing that both Houses of the General Assembly adjourn on the 15th of December, and asking the concurrence of the House.

Mr. Williams, of Warren, moved to lay on the table, which was not agreed to—yeas 26, nays 73.

Mr. Philips, of Orange, said he was anxious that the Legislature should adjourn as soon as possible, but he thought the resolution premature. No important business had yet been transacted, and it was impossible to transact it before the 15th of December. Instead of occupying time by discussing such a resolution as this, it would be better to go on with the business and get ready to adjourn. He would not, by his vote, put the House in a false position, in which it would be driven to rescind the resolution if it now passed, in order to get through with the business that must be transacted at this session.

Mr. George, of Columbus, thought it better to concur in the resolution in order to get rid of similar propositions in future. He did not think the Legislature would adjourn until the business was gone through with; and the resolution could be rescinded, if necessary.

Mr. Scales, of Rockingham, moved to postpone the further consideration of the resolution till December 10th, which did not prevail—yeas 45, nays 65.

The resolution was then concurred in, yeas 72, nays 38.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting the engrossed bill to repeal an act of 1850–'51 establishing the county of Jackson, which passed its first reading.

On motion of Mr. Love, of Haywood, the rules were suspended and the bill put upon its second reading.

Mr. Love then moved to amend by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting, as a substitute, a supplemental bill to carry into effect the act establishing the said county.

On motion of Mr. Wheeler, of Lincoln, the bill and amendment were laid upon the table and made the special order of the day for Tuesday next.

A message was received from the Senate proposing an amendment to the bill to incorporate the Gulf and Graham plankroad company, which was concurred in.

Mr. Brooks, of Pasquotank, a bill to incorporate Jonesborough Division, No. 201, S. of T. Referred to committee on Corporations.

On motion of Mr. Saunders, of Wake, the House went into committee of the whole, Mr. Cherry, of Bertie, in the chair.

The question being on the amendment offered on yesterday by Mr. Long, of Randolph,

Mr. Puryear, of Surry, offered to amend by striking out the original bill and substituting one providing for one additional Judicial circuit, to be called the 8th circuit.

The committee was addressed by Messrs. Puryear, Caldwell of Guilford, Miller, Baxter, Hill of Caswell, Dobbin, Lench, Saunders of Wake, and Reid of Duplin.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 17, 1852.

Mr. Clark, from the committee on Corporations, to whom was referred the bill to incorporate Mt. Mr. Clark, from same committee, reported back the bill to incorporate Cumberland Academy, in the county of Cumberland, with an amendment.

Mr. Woodfin introduced a memorial, which, without being read, was referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Gilmer offered a resolution, that, during the absence of the principal clerk, by sickness, the assistant door-keeper be authorized to employ an assistant. Adopted.

Second Reading of Bills.

Bill to pay Rufus H. Page $50 for preparing a tabular statement for the use of the Legislature. Passed; rules suspended, read third time and passed.

Bill to attach a portion of Davidson to Forsyth. Laid on the table.

Bills on their third Reading.

Bill to increase the revenue of the State, from the sale of its bonds. Passed.

Bill to amend an act regulating the pay of jurors in Craven. Passed.

Bill to amend an act incorporating the Anson Plank Road Company. Passed.

Bill to incorporate the Haywood and Raleigh Plank Road Company. Passed.

Bill giving the election of Clerks and Masters to the people.

Messrs. Caldwell and Kelly opposed the passage of the bill.

Mr. Shaw advocated its passage. He said he had the utmost confidence in the capacity of the people for self government. It was right they should say who should be their officers—and it was contrary to the genius of liberty to withold from them this privilege.

Mr. Thompson called for the yeas and nays. The bill was rejected—yeas 18, nays 25.

The bill to lay off and establish a new county, to be called Sevier, being the order of the day,

Mr. Bower asked for the reading of the memorial which accompanied the bill. The memorial being read,

Mr. Bower said, in substance, that he asked for the establishment of this county for county purposes, and he hoped there would not be a dissenting voice to the passage of the bill. He said the proposed county did not now contain the population required to constitute a county, under the requirements of the Constitution, but such was the prosperity of the country, he would take the responsibility of saying, it would contain the number long before the next apportionment shall take place. He said the county of Ashe contained nearly a population of 9,000; and such was the improvements in the agricultural pursuits of that country, that he had no fears for the increase not being sufficient. He said there was another cause why the population would rapidly increase, and that was, that in the State of Virginia, the public debt was great—counties had been allowed to take stock in Railroads, thus fixing upon the people a burdensome and onerous tax. Already the tide of emigration has begun to flow into this State, from the adjoining counties in Virginia, and would continue to a very considerable extent, while her taxes were high, and a prospect of being higher.

He said the people of that portion of Ashe, who now petitioned for a new county, were compelled to travel to and from Court, a very considerable distance, cross rivers, which, in the winter, endanger their lives, from the fact, that they had often to ride or walk over these rivers on ice. These were considerations, to his mind, which called for the establishment of a new county, which would obviate the difficulty. He would not say, wait twenty years for the population to increase, but he believed, in less than half the time it would be more than sufficient.

As a proof of the growing prosperity of his country, Mr. Bower said, from the sale of town lots, the county had been enabled to build its Court House and other public buildings; and, if Senators would take the trouble to examine the Census for the past ten years, and compare with the previous one, they would not hesitate to believe that the increase for the next ten years would be in proportion. He hoped the bill would pass.

Mr. Steele did not doubt the fact that the country alluded to by the Senator from Ashe, was a prosperous part of North Carolina; and he hoped it would continue to prosper and increase in population; still, the Senator from Ashe admitted it did not contain the Constitutional requisition to constitute it a county, and he was opposed to doing what he would, or might be sorry for hereafter. He must oppose the passage of the bill; and called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. Bower replied briefly to Mr. Steele, and, the vote being taken, the bill was rejected—yeas 16, nays 28.

On motion of Mr. Brogden, the bill to make Railroad Companies liable for damage to property, from fire from Locomotives, was taken up.

Mr. Brogden offered an amendment, which was rejected.

The question then recurring on the passage of the bill the second time,

The yeas and nays were called for, and resulted, yeas 8, nays 36. So the bill was rejected.

Mr. Hoke introduced a bill to confirm grants of land made for the benefit of iron works; which was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Lillington moved to reconsider the vote by which the Anson Plank Road Company had passed its third time; which motion prevailed, and the question being on the passage of the bill, its third reading,

Mr. Steele proposed an amendment, which prevailed. [The amendment gives the Company power to extend their road to Salisbury.] The bill then passed.

A message was received from the House of Commons, transmitting a letter from Chief Justice Ruffin, with a proposition to print, which was agreed to.

After the reading of the letter, Messrs. Joyner and Gilmer made appropriate and feeling remarks on the public and private character of Judge Ruffin; and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 17, 1852.

The Speaker presented the following communication from Chief Justice Ruffin, which was read by the Clerk:

To the Honorable the General Assembly of North Carolina, now in session.

GENTLEMEN: I desire to retire to the walks of private life, and therefore pray your honorable body to accept the resignation of my place on the bench of the Supreme Court. In surrendering this trust I would wish to express my grateful sense of the confidence and honors so often and so long bestowed on me by the General Assembly. But I have no language to do it suitably. I am very sensible that they were far beyond my deserts, and that I have made an indifferent return of service. Yet I can truly aver, that to the best of my ability I have administered the law as I understood it, and to the ends of suppressing crime and wrong and upholding virtue truth and right; aiming to give confidence to honest men, and to confirm in all good citizens a love for our country and a sure trust in her laws and magistrates. In my place I hope I have contributed to those ends; and I firmly believe that our laws will, as heretofore, be well executed, and our people, happy in the administration of justice, honest and contented as long as they keep, and only as long as they keep, the independent and sound judiciary now established in the Constitution—which, with all other blessings, I earnestly pray may be perpetuated to the people of North Carolina.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Your most obliged and obt. servant.
THOMAS RUFFIN.

Raleigh, November 10th, 1852.

A message was received from the Senate proposing two amendments to the bill to incorporate the Mutual Insurance and Trust Company, which were concurred in.

On motion of Mr. Shimpock the bill to incorporate the Concord and Anson plankroad company was taken up and the amendments proposed by the Senate concurred in.

The special order of the day, being the bill to appoint a superintendant of common schools and for other purposes, was then taken up, and Messrs. Cherry, Wiley, Spruill, Avery, McNeill, Phillips, and Long of Randolph, addressed the House in favor of the bill with the amendments proposed by the committee.

Messrs. Martin, Webb and Scales spoke against the bill in its present shape.

Mr. Scales, of Rockingham, moved to recommit the bill to the committee on education in order that some changes might be proposed. Not agreed to.

The amendments proposed by the committee were then adopted.

On motion of Mr. Love, of Haywood, the rules were suspended and the bill put upon its third reading.

Mr. Puryear a resolution to authorize H. G. Hampton, late sheriff of Surry, to collect arrears of taxes. Referred to committee on Private Bills.

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, a resolution that, with the concurrence of the Senate, the Supreme Court be requested to examine whether the law by which the School Fund is distributed among the several counties is constitutional.

On motion of Mr. Reid, of Duplin, it was laid on the table by a vote of 84 to 23.

On motion of Mr. Saunders, of Wake, the House went into committee of the whole on the Judiciary bill, Mr. Cherry, of Bertie, in the Chair.

The question being on the amendment offered by Mr. Long, of Randolph, to strike out that portion of the bill which divides the State into three judicial districts, it was adopted.

Mr. Puryear then moved to strike out all after the enacting clause and insert a substitute providing for one additional judicial circuit.

Messrs. Puryear, Long of Randolph, Baxter, Turner of Orange and Hill of Duplin spoke in favor of the amendment, and Messrs. Dobson, Caldwell of Guilford and Hill of Caswell agasnst it.

Without taking a vote the committee rose, and the Speaker resumed the chair.

A message was received from the Governor transmitting the report of the Board of Internal Improvement, which was sent to the Senate with a proposition to print.

The report of the Comptroller was sent to the Senate with a proposition to print.

Bills on their third Reading.

Bill to incorporate the Geensborough and Deep River Navigation Company. Amended and passed.

Bill to establish the Farmer's Bank in Elizabeth City. Passed.

House adjourned.

A SIGNIFICANT FACT. Gen. Scott could not carry his native State, Virginia, nor his adopted State, New Jersey. And even Wm. A. Graham could not carry North Carolina!

In Virginia, in seventy-six counties and three towns Gen. Pierce gains 5,598. Good for the Old Dominion. Fayetteville Carolinian.

No. 1.

To the Honorable Members of the Senate and House of Commons of North Carolina:

Of the many important subjects that will doubtless engage your deliberations the present session, none I am sure is more entitled to your undivided attention than that of popular Education.

This subject appeals to the liberal spirit, warm approval and hearty co-operation of every citizen of the State, but its claims to your care and patronage are heightened by your twofold character of citizen and legislator. The full weight and responsibility of this high position I hope you duly appreciate. Your authoritative influence over the most valuable interest of a great State—the primary education of her people, invests your new relations to this subject with increased interest and with deep and lasting reponsibility.

In addressing you a few suggestions upon the importance of your early attention to this subject I hope not to be considered vain by expressing the belief that they will receive your anxious attention. The members of the Legislature of 48–'9 read with deep interest the address of an intelligent and benevolent lady of the North upon the condition of the poor insane of the State, and manifested an encouraging spirit by appropriating a sufficiency to build an Asylum. A native citizen, in a more humble way, is now ambitious of contributing to an equally philanthropic object and of pressing its importance upon the attention of the members of the present Legislature.

By education is meant the proper use of those instruments of knowledge which the elements of science afford, for developing, strengthening, training, and moralizing the mind of children and of implanting those great principles of virtue, knowledge, patriotism and religion, which guarantee their future usefulness to society, and happiness to themselves. This is of two kinds—Elemental and Scientific. The former relates more particularly to the instruction of the popular mind, and hence comes more directly under the control of the Government. By the constitution of our nature the beginning of our education or use of its instrumentalities, are intrusted to parents, who are necessarily the first teachers of children. Every parent adopts a system of instruction in learning its child to stand—to walk—to talk, and to distinguish objects by names, which not only requires an exercise of the senses of hearing, seeing and feeling, but to a considerable degree the faculties of the mind are employed. These are first lessons in education impressed upon the mind by the care, affection and fidelity of parents. The government is here prohibited from any direct participation, except when divising a public educational system, the same instruction is not imparted by considering and educating every girl attendant as a future mother and every boy as an elector, juror, citizen and father, thereby becoming the right kind of instructors in return. This then brings the whole subject matter of primary education under the supervision of the government, and for this it should be held responsible. Every child has a right to claim an education as a legacy from the State government and hold it blameable for every case of omission, and to a great degree responsible for the misery, degradation and crimes of ignorance. From the time, therefore, the Legislature of North Carolina adopted a system of Common Schools and burthened the property of her citizens with taxes to maintain it, should she be looked upon as the foster-mother of every poor child within her limits.

You cannot but be apprised that the system now in existence in this State is so defective in its provisions, rules and regulations, that the distribution of the large fund to sustain it, is turned to but poor account, and that very little if any good results from its connexion with the public authorities. While our Legislature has manifested a liberal spirit upon every other subject and obtained for the State already gigantic growth in the facilities of public improvement, our Common School system has not received that attestion which it merits and claims to your patronage demanded. As continued indifference on the part of the Legislature has not only checked its gradual improvement as a public system, but actually paralised and rendered hopeless the efforts of private enterprise to promote its success. Obtaining no perfection, its existence only serves to excuse individual exertion and prevent the encouragement of private Schools. Alive to every scheme of speculation where wealth or personal interest can be advanced, our people have never been sufficiently interested in the cause of popular education to induce them to lay hold with an appreciative spirit and obtain for their children a more substantial legacy in their mental elevation. Let them but feel and know that cooperation with the public authorities and proper exertion on the part of both would soon remove all the obstacles now operating against the efficiency of the system, and exalt our primary schools to a rank among the first in the State. If public sentiment could be awakened up to the subject—new light spread abroad—the indifference of parents removed, and all who are interested in the promotion of education engaged in the work, then we might soon see and appreciate the adoption of a judicious system of Common Schools to the wants and condition of our people. It is for the Legislature to begin this reform, and it is to your intelligence and patriotism I now appeal in its behalf.

A very commendable spirit of improvement has been exhibited by nearly every county in the State, in the erection of new Court Houses, Jails, and more commodious buildings for the support and treatment of the poor. This is as it should be; and although it betokens some county pride, much more might be shown by the improvement of our District School Houses, scattered as they are through the several Counties, and showing by their condition that they are overlooked, dilapidated and uncared for. Let them begin to exhibit signs of improvement, and it will soon lessen the necessity of having finer houses for trial, punishment and suffering. By raising our taxes to build more suitable school houses and to further more extensive amendments to our School system would soon lessen the amount we now pay in the aggregate by diminishing the causes of crime and pauperism, for which we are now so heavily taxed. The statistics of other States and countries where judicious systems of public instruction have been devised, prove this statement to be true. Says Mr. Cousin, in a very able report on the Prussian system of Common Schools, "After the School system had been in operation fourteen years, the proportion of paupers and criminals had decreased 38 per cent."

We may boast of our splendid Capitol—the elegant accommodations provided for the Deaf and Dumb and the poor Insane of our State; but unless more extensive means are used for improving the morals and facilitating the education of our people these monuments of State pride, like the pyramids of the desert, will only attract attention because they tower in contrast to the darkness, crime and suffering that surround their base. Their brightness will serve but to reveal the deep gloom of ignorance beneath. Cold and lofty buildings will exhibit little evidence of State pride unless surrounded by the School House to mark alike the progress of science and a taste for architecture. Better that every valley should contain a plain but comfortable District School House than every hill-top a splendid edifice. Let me say, in the language of Epictitus to the Athenians, "You will confer the greatest benefit on your city, not by raising roofs, but by exalting the souls of your fellow-citizens; for it is better that great souls should live in small habitations, than abject slaves should burrow in great houses."

I shall not attempt to show here the connection between education and liberty, or ignorance and misrule. In the same degree that a child is unfit to govern itself is an uneducated man unable to appreciate the blessings of popular liberty. Education is the vital principle of democracy. The form of our government pleads in its behalf. Deriving its powers from the people as the primary source, it can alone be upheld, guarded and protected by those capable of appreciating its benefits. Where every citizen is free to exercise the elective franchise he should be capable of giving an enlightened vote. This gives to every man a measure of influence and a voice in the government and consequently a responsibility. His vote may tell upon the canvass. I see by a very intelligent writer in the Charleston Review, that the Republic of Chili, after devising a very judicious and efficient system of Common Schools, have inserted a provision prohibiting any one from voting unless advanced far enough in the rudiments of science to enable them to read and write—thus conditioning their citizenship in some degree upon mental cultivation. Without intending to endorse this provision, I have no doubt that it was inserted rather as a stimulus to procure this qualification from all than that any should be excluded by it. If this law was in force in North Carolina would our census returns show, as they now do, a larger proportion of our population unable to read and write than any other State in the Union? It is within your power to have it otherwise. You should look upon the encouragement of our District Schools as the only means of removing this stain from the character of our State, and of training our people in the duties of enlightened citizenship. The safety as well as character of our State demand it from you.

REMARKS OF MR. BROGDEN, OF WAYNE,

Delivered in the Senate on Monday, Nov. 15, 1852, on the bill to exempt persons of 65 years of age and upwards from serving on Juries.

The bill just read, provides for exempting from further service, persons liable to serve as Jurors in the Courts of law in this State after having arrived at the age of sixty-five years or upwards. It does not peremptorily discharge all who shall have attained the age of sixty-five years or more, but only such as may be desirous of availing themselves of the benefit of the act for their relief, by applying to the proper Court of the County of their residence, and making oath or affirmation that they have arrived at that age which is necessary for their discharge from further service as Jurors. This provision seems to be founded in justice, and approved by reason. The Constitution of this State exempts all free white men from the payment of a poll tax, after having passed the age of forty-five years. Such persons are also exempt from performing military duty, and from working the public roads, when they arrive at that age. But there is no law providing for the discharge of persons liable to serve as Jurors during their natural lives. If they become afflicted with any of the maladies incident to human life, their only security against the vigor of the law is in the clemency of the Courts.

A man who is liable to serve on juries, may be old, infirm, and afflicted; he may be in his decrepitude, and he is still subject to be summoned from his seclusion to satisfy the relentless demands of the law. He may have lived to that period in his declining years when repose should be desired, and when his greatest solace is to be found in retirement from the active affairs of this life. And nothing in the nature of legal enactments is more calculated to foster in the breasts of our citizens a love of our government than mild and humane laws—such as are equal in their protection and just in their operation. Nothing is more hurtful to the growth of patriotism than the noxious plant of tyranny and oppression. These are, in every country, the implacable foes of republican liberty and equality. They are the inveterate enemies of all free governments, and their disastrous effects and influence upon the prosperity and welfare of the people are sensibly realized and felt. Injustice is one of the vilest enemies of our civil and religious liberties. In its unholy warfare it injures without cause, oppresses without reason, and punishes without offence.

THE POWER OF SORROW. Sanctified sorrows, what power they possess. God has chosen his people in the furnaces of affliction. Afflictions sanctified take the heart away from the vanity of earth, and fix it on things above.

If riches vanish, you are more ready to think of the treasures that are laid up in Heaven. If honors fade, you will think more highly of the honor that comes from God only. If your reputation be injured by calumny, it will seem a small thing to be judged of man's judgment. If you make yourself, as our blessed Saviour did, "of no reputation," you will look up to God and enjoy his approving smile.

If friends are removed by death, your eyes follow them upward, as the prophet's did his ascending Master. If they have gone to rest in the embrace of their Saviour, you catch their falling mantle, and are led to aspire to the same glorious state. Tell us, young mother, since God took your beautiful babe and dressed it for the skies, and made it an angel of light, has not the world seemed poorer, and Heaven more replete with glorious realities? Tell us, aged parents, from whom God hath taken a daughter in the pride and beauty of early womanhood, quenching the light of her cultivated talents on earth, and veiling all her acquired accomplishments from the eyes of mortals, what think you now of Heaven? Does it not seem more certain and more near, more bright and more beautiful?

I ask that aged mother who sits infirm beside the deathbed of her son, and watches the decay of his manly form till the staff of declining days is broken, and she is left to sigh over the remembrance of his infant years and prattle, and his boyish actions and youthful impulses, and the kind and yearning spirit with which he always returned to her in seasons of absence, what thinkest thou now of Heavenly things? Is not Heaven nearer because earth is drear? Do not the many mansions glitter more brilliantly before thine eyes?

I ask that widowed Christian, from whom God has snatched away the husband of her youth, and the light of her eyes, and who remembers to-day his well-known step, and the accents of his voice, accents that still ring in her ear when she thinks of him, let thy brusied spirit testify, how do Heavenly things now appear, since the earth is bereft of its chief joy?

I make a similar appeal to that husband who has been called to lay a beloved wife in the grave, and has just now awakened to the fact that he did not duly appreciate her when living. She was so gentle that you was not aware of the power of her womanly influence over you, and so uncomplaining that you did not appreciate her claim upon your sympathies. You think now of the brightness of her countenance on the day of your espousals, of many little contrivances which she employed for your happiness. You knew she was mortal, and yet you felt that she could not leave you, that she must not die. But the pale destroyer came; the bloom fled from her cheek; the light of her eye was quenched; and that face which had been so full of life became cold in death. Have you, bereaved husband, bowed to God's dispensation and kissed the rod? How, then, do Heaven and earth compare, after such a stroke as this? Does the world appear a "paltry naked waste,"

"A dreary vale of tears?"

Does not Heaven seem more desirable, and more near? Does it appear to you like the New Jerusalem coming down from God out of Heaven?

MR. WEBSTER'S DEBTS. The Boston Transcript states that at a meeting of the citizens of Manchester, N. H., on Sunday evening last, the Rev. Mr. Davis, who had just returned from Marshfield, remarked:

"A word about his debts. I had heard again and again that he did not pay. I enquired of Mr. Abbott. Said he, "Mr. Davis, from my personal knowledge derived from keeping the private accounts of Mr. Webster I have some opportunity of knowing. Not a bill which has been presented for two or more years during which I have been with him, but it has been promptly paid, and a few days before he died he called the overseer of his farm, and gave him five hundred dollars to pay every man, sent for the minister and paid all that was due him, so it shall not be said Daniel Webster died in debt to any man.' These were the words of his private secretary, and I began to think those who knew Webster best loved him most; and, sir, I was convinced of it more and more as I approached Boston to-day."

A FORTUNE IN VIEW. Mr. John Crofts Coffield, aged 76 years, died on the 28th ult., at his residence in Ann street, where he had for several years lived in a penurious and retired manner. It was believed that by his penurious habits he had saved a small sum of money, earned at his trade, cobbling boots and shoes, but great was the surprise of his friends and others on overhauling the old boots in the corner of his room, soon after his death, to find some of them literally crammed with old wallets well filled with the "root of all evil." It is impossible at present to tell the amount of fortune he has left, but we have heard it estimated at so large a sum as to seem incredible, $200,000, and what makes it more interesting to the parties concerned, he has left a will as long as the moral law, well and faithfully executed, in which he decrees that his estate shall be kept in trust for twenty years before the heirs, with one exception, can receive any benefit thereform. Boston paper, 6th.

ATTENTION DEMOCRATS. The Democratic party of this town and county have determined to commemorate the recent brilliant and unparalleled victory of the Democracy of the country by a Supper, Torch-light Procession, &c., on Friday night next, 12th inst. The supper will be served up in the large room of the "Pioneer" office, and ample provision will be made for the accommodation of all our friends. It is suggested that the Democracy of the Town illuminate their houses on the occasion. It is earnestly hoped that our county friends will turn out in force.

THE STANDARD.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, NOV. 20, 1852.

FREE SUFFRAGE.

We have already informed our readers that the majority of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments of the House of Commons of this State have reported against the passage of the Free Suffrage bill; and that a minority of the Committee have reported in its favor.

We have before us the majority Report, signed by W. S. Harris, W. H. Tripp, Willie Perry, and C. M. Stiles; and the name of Mr. Stiles, it will be seen, is also signed to the minority Report. We have never read a weaker document than the majority Report. We shall take it up in our next, and show to the people of the State the object of the opponents of Free Suffrage, and the tendency of their present movements.

The last Raleigh Register goes into a fit of heroics over a recent article of ours, in which we said the people of the State "have demanded Free Suffrage, and THEY SHALL HAVE IT." That paper attempts to create the impression that we are seeking to dictate to the Legislature, and it calls upon that body to give us an "indignant rebuke." We assume to dictate to no one. As one of the organs of the people we claim the right to utter our honest thoughts. We have exercised this right heretofore, and we expect to continue to do so, "in spite of lamentations here or elsewhere." We have proclaimed it, and we proclaim it again—certainly with all deference and respect for the members of Assembly—that the people of North Carolina have demanded Free Suffrage, and that the present bill ought to be passed, in obedience to that demand, and submitted to the people for their approval at the ballot-box.

But we do not propose to-day to go at length into the subject, having taken up our pen merely for the purpose of calling attention to the bill introduced by Mr. Avery and the Reports of the Committee. The bill and the minority Report are given below. We take occasion to say that the minority Report, though brief, presents the leading points in a strong light, and must command the approval of an immense majority of the freemen of the State:

"A BILL to amend the Constitution of North Carolina.

WHEREAS, at the last session of the General Assembly, A. D. 1850—'51, a Preamble and Bill proposing to amend the Constitution of North Carolina, was read three times in each House, and agreed to by three-fifths of the whole number of members of each House respectively, and has been duly published for six months previous to the election of the members to the present General Assembly: And, Whereas, it is the purpose of this Bill, to re-enact and agree to the alteration proposed in and by the Preamble, and the first section of the bill aforesaid, in the precise words and figures thereof, by the concurring votes of two thirds of the whole representation in each House of this General Assembly, after the same shall have been read three times, on three several days in each House;

Now "Whereas the freehold qualification, now required for electors for members of the Senate, conflicts with the fundamental principles of liberty, Therefore,

I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, Two-thirds of the whole representation in each House concurring, "That the second clause of the third section of the first article of the amended constitution, ratified by the people of North Carolina, on the second Monday of November, A. D., 1835, be amended by striking out the words, "and possessed of a freehold within the same district, of fifty acres of land, for six months next before and at the day of election," so that the said clause of said section shall read as follows: 3. All free white men of the age of twenty-one years, (except as is hereinafter declared,) who have been inhabitants of any one district within the State, twelve months immediately preceding the day of any election, and shall have paid public taxes, shall be entitled to vote for a member of the Senate."

II. Be it further enacted, That the foregoing amendment to the Constitution of this State, as embodied in the preceding section, be submitted by the Governor to the people, on the first Thursday of August, A. D., 1853, thirty days notice having been given, and that the polls be opened by the respective sheriffs, and kept open for one day, from the hour of ten o'clock in the morning, to the hour of 6 o'clock in the afternoon, at the several election precincts in each and every county in the State, under the same rules and regulations as now exist, for the election of members to the General Assembly: That the said sheriffs be required to compare and certify the results of the elections, on or before the Saturday following, and transmit the same in twenty days thereafter to the Governor of the State: That all persons qualified to vote for or against a ratification of said amendment: Those who wish a ratification of said amendment, voting with a printed or written ticket "approved;" those of a contrary opinion, "not approved." Further, That it shall be the duty of the sheriffs to make duplicate statements of the polls in their respective counties, sworn to before the Clerk of the County Court; one copy of which shall be deposited in said clerk's office, and the other copy transmitted to the Governor of the State, at Raleigh.

III. Be it further enacted, That when the returns aforesaid shall have been received, the same shall be opened by the Governor, in the presence of the Secretary of State and Treasurer; and in case a majority of the votes polled shall be in favor of a ratification of said amendment, the same shall be forthwith made known by a proclamation of the Governor to the people of the State. And thereupon, the Governor shall cause to be endorsed on the said amendment, as enrolled by the two Houses of this General Assembly, and shall annex thereunto a certificate under his signature, declaring that said amendment has been ratified by the people of North Carolina; and the Secretary of State shall countersign the said certificate, and annex thereto the great seal of the State: And the said amendment, so enrolled, with the certificate aforesaid, shall be forever kept among the archives of the State, in the office of the Secretary aforesaid.

MINORITY REPORT.

The undersigned, members of the Select Committee on Constitutional Reform, to whom was referred the bill to amend the Constitution of North Carolina, do not concur in the report submitted by a majority of that committee; and beg leave to enter their unqualified dissent thereto, and to express their most hearty approval of the amendment proposed by the bill, and of the mode therein adopted for effecting it.

The right of an elector, when once qualified, to vote for candidates for all elective officers, lies at the very foundation of American ideas of liberty and equality, and no one can oppose it, who believes in the capacity of man for self-government.

The statement of the proposition amounts in itself to a demonstration, because equality at the ballot-box must be an axiom in the political faith of every genuine advocate and supporter of republican principles.

An elaborate argument, therefore, to support the principle of equal suffrage, as involved in the bill, is unnecessary, and would be an act of supererogation at this time. The patriotic and intelligent voters of North Carolina have demanded a change in our fundamental law, so as to incorporate therein this principle of equality, with a unanimity unparalelled, and in a voice which cannot be disregarded. The people have not only settled the question as regards the bill, now under consideration, by an emphatic approval of the principle it involves, but they have approved, in terms alike decisive, the mode therein adopted, of amending their constitution, at least so far as regards the amendment as embodied in the bill.

The only enquiry, therefore, which should have engaged the attention of the committee, was, whether the requirements of the Constitution, in relation to amendments thereto by the Legislature, had been strictly complied with. Upon this latter point, there was no difference of opinion among the members of the committee. At the last session of the General Assembly, the present bill passed both Houses, by the majority prescribed by the Constitution, and all the solemnities required in its enactment were duly observed at that session. The committee likewise concurred in opinion, that this bill, so agreed to, at the last session, had been published six months previous to the election of the members of this General Assembly. It is much to be regretted that differences of opinion among the members of the committee, either as to the principle involved in the amendment itself, or as to the mode of effecting it, should have resulted in a report adverse to a bill which meets the approval of nine-tenths of the people of the State; and indignant would have been the popular response from all sections, if the report of a majority of the committee determined the question; but fortunately, it still remains for this Legislature to decide whether they will, by a two-third vote, effectuate the object so wisely begun at the last session, by re-enacting this bill, and submit the great and important question it involves to the people for their ratification, or whether objections, merely formal, shall forestall the wishes of the people, and debar them the enjoyment of essential political privileges. Hoping that all the members of the House may ultimately agree to unite with the undersigned in responding to the demands of the people in relation to equal suffrage, they earnestly recommend the passage of the present bill, as the most effectual and speedy mode of consummating the wishes of the people on that subject.

Respectfully submitted,
SAMUEL A. WILLIAMS,
JO. DOBSON,
C. M. STILES.

LET US STAND TOGETHER.

Now that we are triumphant as a party in almost all quarters, and as the people look to the Democracy to give effect to their principles by selecting proper agents to carry ont those principles, it is of the first importance that we should BE UNITED, and act together as one man. The adversary is watching closely for divisions in our ranks, and he will certainly profit by divisions, should they occur. Let us disappoint him, and gratify our friends by fully meeting their expectations.

The present Legislature is Democratic—the State is Democratic—the people have willed that Democratic measures shall prevail and be established; and that will, which has been so clearly and conclusively pronounced, is entitled not merely to respect, but it ought to be obeyed.

If we divide now, all the fruits of a well-won victory may be lost. If we fail to unite in one instance, we may fail in all. Let the motto of every sincere Republican therefore be—"Union, harmony, concession—every thing for the cause, nothing for men."

RESIGNATION OF CHIEF JUSTICE RUFFIN. It will be seen, by reference to our Legislative proceedings of Wednesday, that on that day a letter from Chief Justice Ruffin was read to the two Houses in which he resigns his place on the Supreme Court Bench. This event has occasioned no small degree of concern and regret both among the members of Assembly and the people. In the House, Gen. Saunders took occasion to express his regret at the prospect of losing so eminent and so valuable a Judge; and in the Senate, after some remarks from Col. Joyner of a similar character, Mr. Gilmer rose and spoke at some length, and in the course of his remarks bore strong and eloquent testimony to Judge Ruffin's noble traits and virtues as a man, and to his integrity, industry, and very great learning as a Judge.

The reader will be struck with the dignified simplicity of the letter of resignation. It is a model letter of the kind.

The whole people of the State will hear of this event with regret. The present Legislature will, of course, fill the vacancy, but we know of no one who can supply the loss to the Bench occasioned by this resignation.

DEMOCRATIC REJOICINGS.

The Democrats of Wake County, together with the Democratic members of the Legislature, celebrated the late victory, in this City, on Monday night last, in the most spirited and imposing style.

Soon after sunset the firing of cannon was commenced; and in a few minutes bonfires were kindled in front of the Capitol, the Court House, and the Goverument House, and the procession was formed and marched to pay their respects to the Governor, with torchlights, music, and transparencies. The large crowd, arrived at the Executive mansion, gave three hearty cheers for Gov. REID, to which His Excellency responded in an appropriate and eloquent manner, and at the conclusion of his remarks three more cheers were given for "the first in a long line of Democratic Governors." The Governor then invited the crowd to partake of refreshments; after which the procession returned up Fayetteville Street, and halted in front of the Yarbrough House, where, in response to calls, brief but spirited and pointed speeches were delivered by Hon. James C. Dobbin, S. P. Hill, W. W. Avery, and John F. Hoke, Esquires. The procession then moved up Fayetteville Street to Mr. Fentress's building, where, in answer to calls, some stirring remarks were made by Gaston H. Wilder, Esq. The procession next moved to the residence of Mr. John Hutchins, where William Lander, Esq., Col. Bower, Col. Wheeler, Maj. Black, and J. H. Dobson, Esq., were successively called out, and who entertained the large assemblage for some time in the happiest style. Next Perrin Busbee, Esq., was waited upon and called out. Mr. Busbee made a capital response, eliciting repeated shouts of applause; after which W. W. Holden, in answer to calls at his residence, made some remarks; and then the procession marched for the residence of Gen. Saunders. Gen. Saunders' residence was illuminated in honor of the occasion, as was also the Executive Mansion. After repeated cheers, the General addressed the assemblage in his best manner, and concluded by offering refreshments; after partaking of which the crowd moved off with cheers down Hillsborough Street, and arrived at Lawrences' Hotel they were addressed in a handsome manner, in response to calls, by Forney George, Esq., Col. William McNeill, and Gen. Thomas J. Person; and afterwards, at the Court House, Dr. H. M. Shaw and William E. Hill, Esq., being called on, spoke briefly amid cheers and hurrahs.

There were some fifteen or twenty transparencies borne on the occasion, with the following among other inscriptions:

1. An Eagle holding in its beak PIERCE and KING, the choice of the people—"No North, no South, no East, no West": and on the reverse 300,000 majority.

2. FRANKLIN PIERCE, New Hampshire, Conservatism triumphant; reverse, Foss and Fogg, Fraud and Forgery, Fuss and Feathers.

3. NORTH CAROLINA—KING is her son; reverse, More "thunder from the mountains!"

4. CONNECTICUT—"The last notion"—3,000 majority.

5. MAINE—She comes "lumbering"—12,000 majority; reverse, GEORGIA, she doubts no longer.

6. PENNSYLVANIA—25,000 majority—The Keystone is firm; reverse, NEW JERSEY, Her Broad Seal tells this time.

7 INDIANA—18,000 majority—She never falters.

8. Little DELAWARE—Thankful for small favors.

9. VERMONT, MASSACHUSETTS, TENNESSEE, and KENTUCKY ask leave to change their votes; reverse, WISCONSIN, IOWA, CALIFORNIA—"Train up a child in the way he should go."

10. OHIO—20,000 majority—"Oh that sweet Irish brogue!"—reverse, MICHIGAN—Lewis Cass has done his duty.

11. NEW YORK—26,000 majority—Sewardism repudiated; reverse, SOUTH CAROLINA—Zealous for her rights.

12. ILLINOIS—15,000 majority—The home of the "Little Giant"; reverse, ALABAMA and MISSISSIPPI, Democracy and Cotton their staple products.

13. TEXAS—A star in the centre, and an unnamed star on the right.

14. A Monument, and the names of POLK, CALHOUN, CLAY, WEBSTER on either side of it, with the words, Their names are immortal.

Gen. Singeltary, who acted as Chief Marshal on the occasion, acquitted himself admirably. He was assisted by Col. Otey, Mr. George T. Cooke, and Dr. S. A. Williams—all of whom, together with the Committees, deserve the thanks of the Democracy assembled on the occasion for their prompt discharge of their respective duties.

Every one, from the boys up to the veterans who could boast of having cast their first votes for Jefferson, appeared to be brimfull of patriotic joy. It was an occasion—a scene—an outpouring of the masses, and an hour of "jubilation" and of joyous excitement which will long be remembered in Raleigh. Our Whig friends bore it all with much good humor, feeling as they no doubt did, that we were doing just what they would have done under similar circumstances.

A NATIONAL PRESIDENT.

The whole Union, with the exception of California, has been heard from, and the result is as follows:

Gen. Scott's vote:
Free States,	18
Slave States,	24
	42
Gen. Pierce's vote:
Free States,	158
Slave States,	96
	254

The gratifying fact is thus seen that Pierce, nominated by Virginia and the South, receives from the North 9 votes more than sufficient to elect him President. May we not proudly announce a triumph which, like the glorious young chief that has led the contest, "knows no North, no South, no East, no West," but is as comprehensive as the Union itself! Richmond Enquirer.

☞ It will be seen, by the Senate proceedings of Wednesday, that the bill proposing a new county out of a portion of Ashe, to be called Sevier, was defeated in that body by a vote of 16 to 28. The substance of the remarks of Col. Bower on the occasion, will be found in another column. It is due to that gentleman to state that he used his best exertions to induce the Senate to pass the bill.

REMARKS OF MR. JOYNER, OF HALIFAX.

In the Senate, on the resignation of Judge Ruffin.

I rise, Mr. Speaker, to express my very sincere regret that Judge Ruffin, for many reasons, should have resigned the distinguished position he occupies as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; and I am fully persuaded that this regret will be deeply felt throughout the length and breadth of the State. He is well known, and is universally admitted to be one of the ablest jurists and most learned Judges of this country. To eminent abilities in the discharge of his official duties, he has united the utmost uprightness, independence and urbanity, and no man has left the bench with a more spotless, pure, and unimpeachable character. To his other distinguished merits I may be permitted to particularize that he has contributed much towards infusing into the decisions of the Supreme Court a high tone of moral feeling and sentiment, producing the most beneficial results. When such a man, uniting in himself all the high and eminent qualities necessary to form and to adorn the judicial character retires from the bench, in the full possession of the most vigorous intellect, the loss cannot be otherwise than deeply felt, and his place most difficult to supply.

I have known Judge Ruffin for forty years, our acquaintance having commenced in 1812. Living remotely from each other, I cannot claim the honor of being among the number of his most intimate confidential friends, but I am happy to say that the kindest relations have always subsisted between us without the slightest interruption, and in the retirement he now seeks he has my best wishes that his remainitng days may be as peaceful and happy as his past life has been eminently valuable to the State.

MAD ABOUT IT. The Tribune talks as if it were really mad about the result of the late election. He says:

"What the Fillibustering rabble of the cities who fancy that they are going to take Cuba, may desire or do is of no more consequence than the cawning of so many crows; but the master-spirits of the Propaganda have only to say the word and Cuba will be laid at their feet, with John Van Buren and Henry B. Stanton singing hosannas to the extension of the area of Democratic Freedom and Progress with the consequent enlargement of the profits and scope of Virginia slave-breeding. The party collar which surrounded the neck in the iron days of Jacksonian dictatorship now passes under the pocket and over the lips; and Slavery may steal all the rest of our continent without evoking a whisper of remonstrance from the Sub-Treasury vault wherein Barnburner professions lie awaiting the last stages of noisome decomposition."

"Still harping upon my daughter"—slavery, slave-breeding and stealing our continent. Mr. Greely thinks Southern Rights have triumphed—and so they have—and he may rest assured that what the Southern presses have repeatedly said is true, viz: That the Rights of the South, under the Constitution, without the application of the "higher law," must and will be asserted and maintained, or the Union must be dissolved. But why do we allude to disunion? A great and glorious and patriotic people have just said it shall not be dissolved; and moreover that the party who would destroy the one and consequently the other, are entitled to the most sovereign contempt of the American people—and that the higher law politics and the lower-law morality party, may seek out the smallest possible corner in which to hide their little body—soul it has none. Wil. Com.

INCIDENTS OF THE CAMPAIGN. A whig paper in New Jersey, in announcing their defeat, quotes from Milton as follows:

"Earth felt the wound, and Nature from her seat,
Sighing through all her works, gave signs of woe
That all was lost."

It is said that at the last election Pierce was running for President and Scott was running against Hale.

A gentleman in Buffalo says that he is now going to renounce whiggery; that he has worked hard for the party for twenty years, and all he ever got was the inflammatory rheumatism.

The Madison County Whig accounts for General Scott's defeat in the fact that his "military career disqualified him from running!" He had never run, and couldn't learn how.

The Albany Register says we are picking up a very respectable number of assemblymen, sheriffs, clerks, &c., here and there, considering the "awful" democratic majorities on the State and electoral tickets. We are "thankful for small favors."

During a recent visit of Mr. Webster to his farm at Franklin, a lady—a relative—remarked to him, "Well, Mr. Webster, I was really in hopes that some time I should see a live President of the United States." "You will yet, madam," was the instant reply of Mr. Webster, "if you and Gen. Pierce live until next March." We have the above from the lips of the husband of the lady, who was himself present.

DAILY LINE. We have the pleasure of stating for the information of the public, that Messrs. Bland & Dunn have commenced running their line daily between this place and Raleigh. As far as regards good coaches and good horses, no line in the State surpasses it. Their drivers too, are gentlemanly and accommodating. No trouble is spared by the enterprising proprietors to make the traveller comfortable.

There is, also, a daily line running between this place and Charlotte, stocked with good horses and stages, Alex. Springs, proprietor, and as clever a fellow as ever lived. Any one at all acquainted with the man, well knows that every effort will be brought into requisition to make the way of the traveller pleasant and agreeable.

Through tickets can be had at Charlotte to Petersburg; and also from Petersburg to Charlotte; and from Salisbury to Petersburg. Salisbury Whig.

It is stated in "The Voice of the Fugitive," published in Windsor, Canada West, and edited by Henry Bibb, that the underground railroad never did a more thriving business than at present. Within ten days, the editor says, he has greeted no less than twenty-six refugees from slavery, not one of whom had met with any difficulty in making his way to Canada.

This is the same "Brother Bibb" whom Foss boasted in a letter of having hugged to his bosom, and aided him with funds to keep the "under-ground railroad" in fine running order. We mean "Parson" Foss, whom the Whig and other Southern Scott organs, made their chief witness in their reckless assault upon Franklin Pierce! Rich. Enq.

INFORMATION. Gov. Morehead, while attending the whig mass meeting in this place, expressed a great anxiety to know who Franklin Pierce was. If the Governor will return this way, some of his whig friends can now give him the desired information.

We hope Gov. Morehead will come to Fayetteville and make one more political speech, and we think the democracy will gain twice twenty-seven. Fayetteville Carolinian.

It is said that Gen. Scott bears his defeat with the most perfect equanimity. No man regrets more than he does the vituperation with which the character of his adversary was sometimes assailed by a portion of the press and some stump orators during the late canvass. He reciprocates the feelings which Gen. Pierce has repeatedly expressed for him during and before the brief period of excitement now ended.

ANOTHER NEGRO STAMPEDE. A number of slaves escaped on horses from Bourbon county, Kentucky, on Sunday last. It is supposed that about twenty-five fled. Some of them were recovered in the neighborhood of the Blue Licks, but more of them are still fugitives. A number of Kentucky officials were in the city yesterday in search of a squad of four, who are suspected of crossing the river opposite Fulton. Cincinnati Gazette.

GEN. PIERCE'S VISIT TO VIRGINIA. The democrats of Richmond have invited Gen. Pierce and Vice-President King to visit that city. We see it stated that Gen. P. will probably visit Richmond, Petersburg, Norfolk, and several places on James river, including Brandon, and the residence of Ex-President Tyler.

The Hon. James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, and the Hon. John W. Davis, of Indiana, (ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives, and president of the Baltimore Convention of 1852,) are now in Washington. Mr. Buchanan and has taken lodgings at the Irving House. Union of Friday.

Trade at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13. Flour has advanced here to $3 75, and is scarce. Hogs are firmer in price, and command 5 25 a $5 35. A sale of new lard, in barrels, has been made at 9¼ a 9½ cents. Freights are unchanged. Exchange on New York is dull, and plenty at par to ¼ premium.

Pig Iron was sold in Pittsburg, on Wednesday, for $40 per ton. A few months ago, it could be bought for $22. The Pittsburg Gazette attributes this great rise to the scarcity of the article, many furnaces being out of blast. This rise will soon set them in operation again. The late rise in England has also given metal a start in this country.

THE ABOLITION VOTE. Full returns from some of the States, and estimates based upon partial returns from other States, justify the belief that the aggregate vote for John P. Hale at the recent Presidential election, was in the neighborhood of 130,000. In 1848 Van Buren received 292,838. Showing a diminution of more than half, in four years.

GEN. PIERCE. Preparations are making at the Merchant's Hotel, Philadelphia, for Gen. Pierce, who it is said will put up there on his arrival in that city. A suit of rooms are fitting up for his accommodation.

NEW BOSTON HEARD FROM! The following are the returns from New Boston, the place where Gen. Pierce is said to have made his Anti-Fugitive Slave law speech; Pierce 215; Scott 32; Hale 17.

DIED,

In this City, on the 1st instant, Miss Mary Pulliam, aged about 70 years. The deceased had been afflicted with paralysis for some months before her death; and she bore her sufferings with fortitude and resignation.

In Kenansville, Duplin, on the 12th instant, John Beatty Reid, son of David Reid, Esq., aged 8 years and 2 months.

In Hyde, on the 5th instant, Mr. Daniel Shaw.

At the residence of her mother, in Orange County, on the 25th of October, Miss Elizabeth Jane Hall, in the 23d year of her age.

The deceased had very early in life professed her faith in the Saviour, and attached herself to the Presbyterian Church, and by her walk and conversation daily testified to those around her that there is a reality in the religion of Christ. Cheerfulness, blended with humility, was a most distinguishing feature of her piety. In her last illness she was called upon to endure severe and protracted suffering, and yet she uttered not a murmuring or repining word. In social intercourse the deceased was a kind, affable and courteous companion; and the highest eulogy which language can pronounce upon her is, that those who knew her best loved and esteemed her most. As a Christian she was warm-hearted, faithful and energetic. Her attachment to the Church was strong and ardent, and well may we say to her surviving friends, imitate her praise-worthy example.

NOVELTY WORKS,

WEST ST., RALEIGH, NORTH-CAROLINA,
SILAS BURNS, PROPRIETOR,
BUILDER OF Steam Engines & General Machinist.

THE above establishment has been in successful operation about one year, and has turned out some of the best STEAM ENGINES and SAW MILLS that have ever operated in this or any other State.

Orders are solicited for Steam Engines and Saw Mills, Mill Gearing and Machinery of every discription to be completed during the Summer and Fall. The improved condition of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road will enable me to fill with dispatch and punctuality all orders after the 1st of July.

The following certificate will show the character of the work executed at the above Works:

AUBRY, Cumberland, May 15, 1852.

Mr. SILAS BURNS,

Dear Sir: Our Engine and Mills, made at your shops, have been at work nearly two months, and fully meet our expectations. The ENGINE, as to FINISH and STRENGTH, PERFORMANCE and DURABILITY, is inferior to none in the State of the same class made here or elsewhere. The MILLS run with a smoothness and speed truly astonishing. In ordinary sawing we cut in a common sized log, 1 foot in 3½ seconds or 16 feet per minute. We have run, however, through an 18 feet log in 32 seconds or at the rate of 33 feet per minute, by running to the top speed we fully believe we can cut 40 feet per minute. The only objection we have heard urged is, it takes two many hands to haul up logs and carry away lumber. Yours, &c.,
JONES & BARBEE.

The citizens of the State are so well acquainted with the advantages of its position, that but few remarks are necessary to complete their information.

The Hotel itself possesses all the requirments of room and comfort, which its purchasers can desire.
